

A Person Like Yourself

Counties Represented in State Senate District 31

Andrews	Hutchinson
Bailey	Lipscomb
Cochran	Martin
Crane	Midland
Dallam	Moore
Deaf Smith	Ochiltree
Ector	Oldham
Gaines	Parmer
Glasscock	Potter
Hansford	Randall
Hartley	Roberts
Hemphill	Sherman
Howard	Yoakum

Special Election:
Tuesday, January 20, 2004
GOP Primary:
Tuesday, March 9, 2004

Candidate Bio Updated 12.19.03

Kel Seliger:

Family Man, Businessman, Community Leader & Lifelong Resident

- 50 year old lifelong district resident (born in Amarillo)
- Former Mayor of Amarillo (served four terms); Former City Commissioner
- Active Republican & strong supporter of President Bush
- Family owned and operated business: Lake Steel, Inc. (Founded in 1937 and currently employs 70)
- Graduate of Panhandle public schools (Borger) and Dartmouth College
- Kel and his wife, Nancy, have two sons: Jonathan (14) & Matthew (12);
Both sons attend local public schools
- Nancy is a graduate of the University of Texas (Petroleum Land Management)
- Kel is a youth hockey coach; Kel & Nancy have also played in the local Adult Coed Hockey League
- Member of NRA and Texas Farm Bureau
- Recipient of Leadership Award from National Association for Community Leadership

Kel Seliger: Active Husband-Wife Republican Team

Nancy currently serves on the State Board of Medical Examiners (Governor Bush appointee) and Kel formerly served on the Texas Alcohol and Beverage Commission (Governor Perry appointee). Kel has also served on Texas Attorney General John Cornyn's Municipal Advisory Committee. Additionally, Kel and Nancy have served as Delegate/Alternate Delegate to the State Republican Convention.

Kel Seliger: Involved Husband-Wife Public Service Team

Kel is past President of the Rape Crisis Domestic Violence Center of Amarillo and has served on the Executive Committee of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, United Way's Citizens' Budget Committee Board, and Don Harrington Discovery Center. He has also participated in numerous organizations for local government, including the Amarillo Civil Service Commission, and served as a past Chair of the Texas Municipal League's Legislative Committee on Community Development.

Nancy's community service includes the Amarillo Hospital District Board, MD Anderson Board of Visitors, Texas Lyceum and Bonham PTA. She has participated in numerous community organizations including: Amarillo Museum of Art Board, Symphony Guild Board, Lone Star Ballet Board, various PTAs, Children's Miracle Network, Jr. League of Amarillo, Big Brothers Big Sisters Board, Round-Up Committee, and Symphony Ball Committee.

P.O. Box 51166 Amarillo, Texas 79159 ★ (806) 373-5500 ★ FAX (806) 373-9900 www.seliger4senate.com ★ email: kel4senate@seliger4senate.com

Political ad by Kel Seliger for State Senate; Ken Kelley, Treasurer.